

Robert Massy

Chief Administrative Officer

Robert Massy is Chief Administrative Officer at Westinghouse Electric Company. In this role, he oversees the company's global corporate functions and services related to Human Resources, Information Technology, Legal & Contracts, Ethics & Compliance, Real Estate and Facilities Management, Security and Corporate Affairs. Additionally, he is responsible for Westinghouse's transformation office and Global Shared Services Center.

Mr. Massy joined Westinghouse in 2015. Prior to this role, he served as Executive Vice President of People & Culture, focusing on building and sustaining an engaging culture while delivering core, corporate services in support of our employees and global sites.

Prior to joining Westinghouse, Mr. Massy held a series of positions of increasing responsibility at Weatherford International, a multi-billion-dollar oil and gas services company operating in over 100 countries around the world. While at Weatherford, he led their regional talent practice in Asia while based in Singapore and laterally in Malaysia. Mr. Massy then transitioned to Weatherford's corporate headquarters in Houston where he led talent and training for the company globally.

Prior to his experience with Weatherford, Mr. Massy held senior business leadership/consulting roles in both Europe and Asia. A native of Ireland, Mr. Massy attended Lancaster University of Lancaster, U.K. where he earned a bachelor's degree in behavior in organisations. He also is a graduate of the University of East London where he earned his Master of Business Administration (MBA).